I could do various times either week. Generally around lunch, early morning or late afternoon work better. Next week (week of 2/13) I will be at the general assembly and don't have a clear idea of availability. Is the notion just to have the judge panel and the topic preserving issues for appeal, etc? This sounds very general and not specifically related to criminal domestic violence or civil domestic relations – am I correct? Michael, have you heard anything from Hingeley on the other topic? I am happy to contact him unless you have already done so. Finally, does our section author any articles for the Journal? If not, I would be willing to coordinate that if you like. Seems like it would be a good idea and a way to “market” the section. Maybe defense perspective/prosecutor perspective on a particular issue. Or one issue is article by defense attorney and the next by a prosecutor.

Rich, Christine, and Denise:

As Larry, the Cable Guy, says, “Get ‘er done!” Well, I “got ‘er done.” As you can tell, the three-judge panel from the Court of Appeals is complete. Now, we have to come up with the programming. Let's try to have a conference call in the near future to go over this. How about next week or the week after so that we can get this rolling. Thanks.

Michael.

Judge Alston:

I am sending you this invitation by email, because it is probably the best way to make contact instead of going through telephone and voicemails; however, I do apologize for the impersonal nature of emails. Last week, during our VBA Winters Conference in Williamsburg, the Criminal and Family Law Sections got together to plan a joint seminar/presentation for our sections at this summer's VBA Conference at the Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia (July 19-22). We want to do a seminar/presentation on appellate practice such as properly preserving the record for appeal, procedural errors on appeal, what issues are the Court of Appeals interested in the domestic and criminal realm, and a whole passel of other topics which we will be developing in the next several months before the Conference in July.

Denise Lunsford, Co-Chair of the Criminal Law Section, and I will coordinate the criminal portion of this, and Christine Corey of my firm, and Rich Garriott of Norfolk will be coordinating the family law side of it. We would like to invite you to be one of the three Court of Appeals Judges on the panel (like in real appellate practice ☺). At the VBA Conference last week, I spoke with Judge Felton and Judge Petty who have shown an interest in participating, and they are to get back to me on it. Would you be interested in joining the panel presentation? It is my understanding that the VBA can provide lodging for you and a guest either the night before your presentation or the night of it along with waiver of any of the registration fees ,etc. The VBA staff will be in contact with you to make the arrangements if you accept out invitation to speak. I look forward to your response. Thank you for your kind consideration.

Michael.

Subject: LEGISLATIVE WATCH INFO - LOTS

Attached is a nearly complete legislative watch listing for 2012 general assembly session. People who have chosen a specific week are listed on the chart. Others who told me that they would be willing to "stand-by" and fill-in if needed are listed at the end of the chart, but I still need info for some of you.

Please take a look at your information and let me know asap of any corrections that you find needed. Remember, these emails and cell numbers are furnished to members of the General Assembly and may be widely circulated, so if you would prefer to use an alternate email or cell (other than that listed) you have to let me know.

I still have a few openings at the end of the session.

We have a VACAWATCH Legislative Watch forum under construction. I screwed up a batch of invitations and am doing some of them over now – 10 a day. If you do not get an invite this week let me know. This will be a larger audience than just people serving on legislative watch teams, but like the VACA yahoo forum VACAWATCH will be a closed forum where you can discuss bills freely. I plan to use the forum to post information throughout the session. As of now, lists of bills for review are on the forum. It has been a slow start on prefilings.

New in 2012: Karen West with the Pittsylvania County CA office will be in touch with you soon about this year's experiment with a "call-in" log of activity on bills. In brief, Karen will have a phone number for you to call in messages about bills much like doctors handle their case file updates; Karen will transcribe messages and notes and enter bill updates onto a spreadsheet of all VACA bills. All VACA Watch members can access the spreadsheet to see a running log of current and past activity on bills throughout the session. Karen will have more info for you on specifics.

Remember: the first bill reading is January 13, 2012 – a Friday and a holiday. There also is a dinner/confab with House Courts members on Thursday evening January 12, 2012. Legislative Watch team members (for any week of the session) who plan to attend the Thursday evening dinner AND the Friday January 13 bill reading can have a room for Thursday night at the Crowne Plaza and VACA has agreed to cover that legislative expense.

Let Mike Doucette know if you plan to attend the dinner and let me know if you want a room.

Subject: week 6

Greetings Jim and Denise:

You are the first part of Week 6 of the General Assembly. This will be crossover week. Committees are required to finish business on all bills originating in their chamber by Tuesday. As a practical matter, most bills will be finished before next week, but some committees will meet Monday (and conceivably on Tuesday). The rush of bills this week leads to the House and Senate spending much more time in session and less time in committees next week.

I already warned Denise that a Monday Senate Courts was likely and the docket has showed up today confirming that Senate Courts meets at 8 am Monday morning – but only has House Bills that already have crossed over on their docket. There are no Senate Courts subcommittees this year. There are 2 House bills of interest in a mostly civil docket: VACA supports HB17 (Kilgore) concerning electronic filing of search warrant affidavits; also VACA supports HB753 (Cline) concerning the CA's opportunity to move the court court concerning juvenile offenses that would require registration at any time while the juvenile is within the court's jurisdiction. I am attaching the Senate Courts docket for Monday. Keep an eye out over the weekend for additional dockets as I discover them. There will not be many, if any more, for Monday or Tuesday.

Also attached is the traditional "getting around" document that is the FAQ's for Legislative Watch nuts and bolts. The "Please Post" document is a reminder to get information to Karen West for the VACAWatch forum.

The hotel will be holding rooms for both of you for Sunday and Monday nights. All rooms are held in my name during the session but your names are left with the front desk for associating you with the rooms. Ask for your breakfast "coupons" at check in. Use the shuttle freely. I plan to leave hard copies of the dockets for both of you at suite 811. Tracey sent you the VACA reimbursement form. You have breakfast provided, so the per diem is reduced by the breakfast std rate. YOU DO NOT NEED TO KEEP RECEIPTS. VACA reimburses by the per diem.

I understand that Jim has only committed to Monday and Tuesday next week (and has some conflicts on Tuesday). Denise is on for the week, but might be able to escape for a while mid-week and stand by in Ch'ville. I am still looking around for another interested CA to come in for Thursday and Friday when committee work will begin to recur. Chesterfield County is available as a stand by via Billy Davenport or one of his assistants.

There always is the potential need to go and lobby particular members on particular bills. Denise has graciously volunteered to help me update the VACAWatch forum spreadsheet and the bill books for crossover.

There are VACA Board and Council meetings on Thursday, February 16, 2012, at 11:00 am, at the Comp Bd conference room.

There is little chance of any late Friday activity.

I don't think we need to get together Sunday night and we can meet Monday morning, but I am willing to defer and meet with you at the hotel if you want on Sunday evening. Denise will have the suite 811 and Jim will have a room waiting for him - # not known yet. Please give me an idea of when you might be getting to town on Sunday - or on Monday if you chose to come directly in for Senate Courts on Monday. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions.

Enjoy your weekend and thanks for helping out your colleagues in Legislative Watch.

Subject: legislative watch

Hi Bob

I hope things went well on Friday and am sorry that I missed the meeting; although not sorry to have been in the sun. I have reviewed the new posts, both documents and messages, to the legislative watch group site. I notice that I have no assignments and wonder what else, if anything, I can do to help. Was my lack of assignments a result of my not having been at the meeting? I have my watch week on my calendar and would like to do as much good while I am there as possible.

The legislative area is something that really interests me. In addition to wanting to be more fully involved in our Association, I am frequently confronted on an informal basis about the various bills by Delegates and Senators in my area as are others in my office. If my input on that level has value to the Association it would seem that I should have a pretty good idea of the position of the Association. If not, then I and my attorneys will simply represent our personal views and make them known as such so it does not appear that we are in any way representing the interests of VACA. Please let me know which is more preferable and if there is anything else I can do.

As a matter of fact, I am going to be in Richmond all next week for Legislative Watch as part of the CA Association. An organization, by the way, that is still questioning whether and exactly how I fit in. Lets just say I am a bit like a fly in the buttermilk at meetings. And I will try to dress appropriate while down there so as not to embarrass Rob Bell (but that could be so much fun). Politics does make strange bedfellows.

What about you or your fellow law enforcement types?? Anything you are lobbying for?

Hey Denise,

What do you think your schedule is going to be? We were meeting at River City Diner which is SUPER easy...Parham Road West exit off of 95 North. It would take you all of 15-20 minutes from downtown. If you think you can make 1230 or 100 just email us back during the day tomorrow because both of us are flexible with our afternoon schedules.

Looking forward to seeing you!!!

Shannon ☺

Hey Denise! I just talked with your Class Social Chair yesterday and we made lunch plans for Tuesday. If you are talking about this Sunday-Thursday, I am booked but could blow off a meeting on Monday night. Trip, if you want to meet for dinner with Denise, we can cancel lunch and catch up at dinner or if you don't want to bore Denise with our happy jurisdictions, we can keep it on the books!

Hope everyone is well!

Greetings potential bill reviewers for January 24, 2012, 9:00 am, at COMPENSATION BOARD CONFERENCE ROOM. We should be able to finish before 11:00 am and not have to resume after the 11:00 Board and Council meetings.

Please reply if you will be attending so I can determine # of copies. Set out below and in attached document is the listing of bills collected since we last met on January 13. The links should deliver the bills to your screen in the comfort of your own home. There are 39 bills of interest and you will notice that a good number appear to be duplicates. I plan to have a completed duplicate list that will expedite things on Tuesday.

I have divided bills for reading assignments in the easiest way without knowing who is coming – alphabetical by last name. Please try to read as many as you can anyway.

The Comp Bd abolition bill and the Court of Appeals abolition bill are so long that I am not printing them – you can get the idea real quick by screening them. I will have several copies available for review on Tuesday.

Thanks for your assistance and see you Tuesday. Also attached is revised Leg Watch contacts list.

Denise-

I was talking with Stacey this morning about CLE hours, and she suggested that it is typically not an issue budget-wise for us to attend either the Spring Institute or the Summer Conference. I've never been to either. Assuming it's ok with you, do you have a preference on which one I try to attend for staffing purposes?

Hi Denise:

I know it seems like these projects take forever, no doubt they take a long time to coordinate. In fact, it has become a full time job for Pat and I in addition to the full-time jobs we already possess, necessitating a lot of after -hours work to coordinate and write proposals for technical assistance, talk with people, put together presentations and documents, and oversee and work on all of the projects we have going on that are moving forward in pretrial, probation violations, domestic violence, JRI, gap analysis of local treatment options, etc.... I'm not complaining, because in my view trying to improve our system and increase efficiency is always the right thing to do.

Hopefully next week in Colorado we can address some of the implementation roadblocks in a project of this magnitude that covers so many areas.

PSI issue and adding risk assessment is something all of the policy team signed off on as a goal. But we have to move sections off that are not as relevant in order to make that happen. Now that it's moving forward as a possible pilot in your court, I want to make sure your office has a voice in the product if you want one. If you have someone in mind, let me know. If not, I understand and we will keep you informed as we move forward.

Wendy

Much as I (and I am sure others) would like for me to farm this out I am hesitant to get someone else involved in something that could become a sinkhole. I understand your estimation of 1 or 2 meetings but this stuff seems to have tar-coated tentacles. Having said that, I will see if anyone has a particular interest and get back to you. My initial reaction is that I would also want to keep the family history section and some information on employment.

Subject: PSI Workgroup

Hi Denise:

I met with Judge Higgins this morning about a pilot for revising the PSI report to include risk/need info, and eliminating some of the "fluff" in the report per our EBDM action plan. Several of my staff are working on this. I spoke with her about a revised version that would modernize the info provided, while working within the constraints we have at DOC with our CORIS data system. I proposed to her that we would provide:

- 1) Pgs. 1 and 2 of the presentence (offense info, conviction data, restitution info, etc..)
- 2) A revised pg. 8 that includes just the narrative info on substance abuse, mental health, physical health, and abuse info. Also includes recommendations based on Compas Assessment.
- 3) A "full" Compas assessment.....basically the Cadillac version, which highlights risk scores and scores on a variety of different criminogenic needs. It also provides a summary of each need, giving specific info on the defendant based on the answers in the assessment.
- 4) Pg. 10 (criminal history) and guidelines

Our goals are to:

- 1) Modernize and provide risk and need info at sentencing and reduce unnecessary info provided in the current format in order to maximize accurate sentencing decisions.
- 2) Possibly reduce the turnaround time for PSI's: we would like to aim for a reduction of time from 60 to 45 days. In order for this to happen, we would need to increase the efficiency in the PSI product, as we are proposing, and reduce the amount of time spent in court throughout the week. This could be accomplished by having "sentencing days", maybe two a month. Our two full time report writers for Charlottesville and Albemarle get 16 new reports assigned per month to them. If they could manage their court time better by being able to set aside specific days in the month versus days in court every week they could use their time more efficiently for jail interviews, processing the reports, etc., possibly resulting in quicker turnaround. I know there are concerns about making specific dates for sentencing, I'm just putting this out there.

Bottom line, could you give me the name of one of your attorneys who could work on this document with my staff and the public defender's office? Only talking about meeting probably once or twice. Judge Higgins wants me to give her two weeks to consider the proposal, but she was interested as long as we kept Pg. 8 with the substance abuse/mental health info. I told her I wanted our staff to get together with a rep from your office and the P.D's office (Jim wants Albie) to decide on the final product for the proposal.

Once we have a product, I requested with Judge Higgins that we pilot the format for a few months and see how it goes, refining as necessary.

Let me know who you have, preferably someone who does criminal docket and lots of sentencings, to help with this.

Thank you and SORRY for the length of this email 😊
